EXPERIENCE

FREELANCE FRONT-END DESIGNER
March 2014 - Current

Work with small business owners to create dynamic websites to stand out in a very competitive marketplace. My role is to discuss ideas, sketch and wireframe prototypes, deliver graphic design and front-end web development files that are easy to update for future iterations.

LEAD FRONT-END DESIGNER AT NBCUNIVERSAL
5 Times Square, 10th Floor, New York, New York 10022
August 2007 - March 2014

As a lead front-end designer, my responsibilities included meeting with clients, gathering information on project requirements, executing timelines and product life cycle management.

Once a design was approved, I oversaw the handing off of design files, system designs and HTML & CSS files to development teams with thorough documentation.

Clients include Hulu and Verizon.
